Sir:

During the December 14, 2006, personal interview, Applicant's representative explained the patentability of the claims over the applied references. In particular, Figs. 23b and 24b of U.S. Patent No. 6,452,653 to Yamanaka et al. illustrate a display screen, not individual pixels, as described at col. 34, lines 14-28 of this reference. Also, Figs. 27 and 28 of this reference do not disclose different types of irregularities. Examiner Duong agreed to reconsider the claims in view of Applicant's arguments.

Respectfully submitted,
